

BONUS BILL WILL PASS THE HOUSE

Proponent of Measure Prepared For Debate Today

OPPOSITION READY

Will Make Bitter Fight to Delay Action on Bill or to Prevent Its Passage.

Washington, May 29.—After weeks of comparisons, caucuses and negotiations, the soldier bonus bill will be taken up tomorrow by the House. Its opponents were prepared last night to make a bitter fight to delay action on the bill or to prevent its passage, but conceded they would be defeated.

As a forerunner of tomorrow's fight, Representative Murphy, Republican, of Ohio, today conducted a filibuster against transaction of any business, but finally stopped on assurance from House leaders that the soldier bill would be on the floor tomorrow. Mr. Murphy's announced purpose was to force immediate action on the soldier measure, and he took advantage of every opportunity today to try to force his way. Even the chaplain's prayer was delayed for half an hour by the filibuster.

Chairman Campbell, of the Rules Committee, announced tonight that he would open tomorrow's session of the House by presenting a resolution suspending all House rules for the next six days. He said he expected the soldier measure to be called up as soon as his resolution was adopted. Some opposition to his resolution is anticipated, but is expected to result only in some delay.

The suspension program will require a two-thirds vote to pass the bonus bill. Mr. Campbell said enough Democrats would join with the majority of Republicans to pass the bill after brief debate.

RAMBO—GARRISON

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday at 3 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Luck Garrison, of Thoroughfare, when their daughter Miss Mary Lavina Garrison, became the bride of Mr. Richard Calvert Rambo, of Alexandria. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a company of relatives and friends by Rev. Edward Tabor, of Washington.

The bride was attired in a gown of white satin, with veil, and carried bride's roses. The maid of honor, Miss Susie Garrison, sister of the bride, wore pink voile and carried sweet peas. Miss Grace Bender, of Alexandria, the little flower girl, wore a frock of blue voile. Mr. Logan Jacobs was best man.

The happy couple left on the night train for Luray. After a short bridal trip they will be at home to their friends in Alexandria.

ERROR CORRECTED

Through an error the following members of the staff of the Alexandria High School "Alecko" were omitted in the article in last night's edition of the Gazette: Magnus W. Bales, through whose unflinching efforts the athletic events of the season have been so ably chronicled; Davis Jackson, by whom a touch of wit and humor has been added to the book. Also the name of J. Kent White, was omitted from the list of advertisers. Copies of the annual can be secured from any member of the senior class or by phoning the high school, 828.

WILSON STATES HIS VIEWS

Indorses Platform of Virginia Democrats in Letter to Glass.

The first authentic and complete indication of what President Wilson expects his party to do at the Democratic convention in San Francisco was given yesterday.

It came in the form of an unequivocal endorsement of the platform of Virginia Democrats recently adopted at their State convention at Roanoke. In a letter to Senator Carter Glass, of Virginia, the President states that the platform, which endorses the league of nations, condemns the Knox peace resolution, and favors the immediate sale to private interests of the American marine, "is in full accord with his own views."

MORE PLANTS CLOSE

Manufacturing Industries in Manchester Suspending Operations.

Boston, May 29.—Manufacturing plants throughout New England continued to close down yesterday, according to reports received here from different cities. At Manchester, N. H., nearly all of the shoe plants have announced their intention of partly suspending operations. The chief reason for the shutdown appears to be uncertainty in shipments and the drastic curbs in prices. Four woolen mills of the American Woolen Company shut down at Lawrence, Mass. The Arlington Mills also are closing down. Different departments are running night shifts on a four day week schedule. Lack of orders and poor business is the reason given, it was said.

MAN KILLED BY GIRL

Victim Had Been Arrested on Her Complaint Several Months Previously.

Montgomery, Ala., May 29.—Miss Sallie Robertson, 19 years old, shot and killed Louis Norman here yesterday while he was painting the Robertson home.

The girl used a double-barreled shot gun loaded with slugs. The killing resulted from an attack Norman is alleged to have made on the girl several months ago.

Norman was arrested then, but the grand jury did not return an indictment against him.

Miss Robertson was arrested on a charge of murder.

GARY'S CHARGE

Says So-Called Labor Strikes Instigated as Part of Campaign to Demoralize the Economic Conditions.

New York, May 29.—That small minority of the population, "concealing their designs under the word 'labor,'" are threatening to undermine the constitution, E. H. Gary, president of the American Iron and Steel Institute, declared in addressing the annual meeting here yesterday.

"The present so-called labor strikes, involving riot and injury to property and person, are instigated as a part of the campaign to disturb and demoralize the economic conditions of the country," Gary said. "In other words, serious results have been accomplished by the same means which have been employed here."

CHURCH AND TOBACCO

National Prohibition Endorsed—Parties Asked to Place Dry Planks in Platforms.

Greensboro, N. C., May 28.—The twenty-third quadrennial session of the Methodist Protestant General Conference which began here last Friday, adjourned last night. Among the features of the final session was further endorsement of the Interchurch World Movement, which the denomination has agreed to support to the extent of $50,000.

A resolution today "forbidding" the ministers of the church to use tobacco was changed to read "earnestly requesting" them not to use it. National prohibition was endorsed and both political parties called on to put "dry" planks in their platform. Continued enforcement of the laws now enacted against whisky was demanded.

Ordination of women in the ministry of the Methodist Protestant Church was provided for in a change in the discipline adopted by vote of the quadrennial report of the general conference of the church, at its session here yesterday. There was little opposition to the proposal.

TWO LOCAL BOYS

JOIN MARINES

This past week two Alexandria boys joined the United States Marines. They are Harold Letts and William Smith, who have been residents of this city for some years. This disclosure new possibilities in the proposition of men who wish to stay together, whether an ex-service man or a recruit, to be transferred to the Vocational Training School at Quantico, Va. One example of this is the case of Letts and Smith as Letts is going direct to Quantico, at the end of a short furlough, and Smith will join him there as soon as he completes his recruit training.

Mr. John Angus King, of George Washington Park left this afternoon to spend the week end and holiday vacation with friends at Linden, Va.

PLACED LOG ON ROAD

Negro Flees When Driver of Car Fires Shots—Occurred Last Night in Alexandria County.

An unsuccessful attempt was made at 8 o'clock last night by an unidentified negro to hold up and rob three unidentified occupants of a touring car while on Columbia Pike, near the Alexandria road, Alexandria county.

A large log had been placed across the road and it is supposed it had been placed there by the highwayman. The driver of the car brought his machine to a stop in time to avoid a collision and fire two shots at the negro who fled into the woods nearby.

ALEXANDRIA'S NEW JUDGE

As has been stated in the Gazette, Robinson Moncreux has qualified as Judge of the Corporation Court of Alexandria, and his first case was Louis C. Barlow, who held the position with all its title and pretensions for a period of eighteen years, has laid aside the scepter.

He was qualified upon the basis of the wool sack trade to receive the sympathy which is his. Persons who know nothing of forensic rules or procedure, and often unacquainted with the facts in cases, are quick to draw conclusions and ready to jump upon matters which may be causing a judge nights of restlessness and sleeplessness.

It is hard to be a judge and not make enemies and not inflict wounds. The office is one that tests the highest human metal, the quality of the moral nature, as well as of the intellect. Only pure gold can come out of it without a mark.

Justice is represented as a woman with her scales of justice and with a drawn sword in her hand. She must be central and ready to award all their dues.

There is much litigation in the world, and always has been and will be. Often persons go into court with trivial matters as bases for their contention. An old fable tells us that two men, friends, were walking by the sea shore when they found an oyster. Both claimed it. The man who picked it up said possession was nine points of the law, while his companion claimed the bivalve belonged to him upon the grounds of discovery, he alleging he saw it first. The disputants finally agreed to take it to the judge. The latter, after hearing the statements of the litigants, asked for the oyster. It was produced, and his honor opened it with a knife and opened it. After having swallowed the oyster he handed each of the contestants a shell.

Should the function in the Sermon on the Mount be followed, pockets of court would shrink materially. "Agree with thine adversary quickly, while thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison. Verily I say unto thee, thou shalt by no means come out thence till thou has paid the uttermost farthing."

ACCEPTS VIRGINIA PLATFORM

As will be seen elsewhere in the Gazette, President Wilson accepts the party platform of the Virginia Democratic convention recently held at Roanoke as expressing his conception of the campaign issues of 1920. An exchange of letters between the Executive and Senator Carter Glass, made public yesterday makes clear what Mr. Wilson considers should be the party's attitude on the League of Nations, finance and reconstruction.

The League of Nations plank, while declared for ratification of the Treaty of Versailles "without reservations which would impair its essential integrity," was particularly commended by the President. He also singled out for praise the platform's declaration on finance and reconstruction, which included a general proposal to revise tax laws and deplored agitation for "an indiscriminate bonus" for soldiers of the great war.

As is known, much of the platform is devoted to praises of Mr. Wilson. His entire administration is set forth into the document is woven a complete endorsement of the Versailles Peace Treaty with its League of Nations Covenant and Mr. Wilson is commended for his refusal to agree to the reservations adopted by the Senate. The Republican Senators, who insisted on the reservation and particularly Senator Lodge, Massachusetts, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and author of the reservation are condemned in bitter language.

SALVATION ARMY APPEAL

In the interest of the Salvation Army's appeal for funds, addresses were made by Capt. John Morgan, of the New York headquarters, in the Richmond and Ingonat Theaters last night.

However frequent the calls upon the public for aid to other useful organizations, no appeal from the Salvation Army should be ignored or neglected as was observed by the Gazette last week. It would be superfluous to recount in many claims to public sympathy. Though the work members of the Army did in France during the war has received an especial meed of praise from Alexandrians who were soldiers during the late war, that was in fact only a subsidiary feature of a comprehensive plan of benevolent effort. The Salvation Army is just as much needed now as it was then. No other body gets at the same class of needy and derelict humanity with such directness and success.

The Salvation Army has never had the liberal financing that it deserves. With the growth of its activities, it has been forced to rely on public help. It is only by the funds it is trying to raise in this city should receive its own subscriptions.

VETOES KNOX RESOLUTION

President Wilson's message vetoing the Knox resolution is brief and to the point. He says of it that it aims to place an insupportable burden upon the gallantry and honor of the United States. Furthermore, "as to establishing peace without exacting from the German Government any action or way of settling right the rights of the United States, as far as the German Government is concerned."

PICTURE DRAWS CROWD

Feature pictures have come and feature pictures have gone but it remains for Harold Bell Wright, the famous author of "The Winning of Barbara Worth" and other widely read novels to produce the material for "The Eyes of the World," the great feature film that is being shown at the Richmond theatre for the last time tonight.

Large attendance featuring the showing of this picture at every performance last evening and it is probably not one person who attended but could be depended upon to speak in glowing terms of the picture and the film. The picture deals with the history of three everyday families, and dates back to 1890. From that point the fortunes of these families are brought up to date and the moral to be gained from seeing this picture is one of the greatest ever played on the screen.

The latter half of the picture, which shows the temptations and tribulations of a young man, who is a box of dynamite smoking a pipe is probably the man who has handled dynamite safely for so many years that he is careless to the danger.

Many a man has suffered for years from a chronic weakness of the Stomach, Liver and Kidneys and he doesn't think they are dangerous because he has put up with them so long. Chronic disease is the cause of disease as pressure on spinal nerves at their exit between joints of the Backbone. Adjusting removes the "pressure" and the cause of disease. Health follows as a matter of course.

lations of a young artist, whose initial fall into the clutches of lust and materialism, is broken by the advice of an old friend and the love of an innocent girl and who finally renounces all connection with society and makes for himself a name greater than could ever have been attained by retaining the friendship of the material class of patrons. NOT AN ISOLATED CASE

Many Similar Cases in Alexandria and Vicinity

This Alexandria man's story given here is not an isolated case by any means; week after week, year after year, our neighbors are telling similar good news.

H. J. Duner, policeman 310 North Columbus Street, Alexandria, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for a good many years and have always had good results. Before I tried them I was troubled a great deal with pains in the small of my back, which were so bad I could hardly bend over sometimes. I had miserable headaches and dizzy spells, too. The kidney secretions passed too freely. I am glad to say that since I have used Doan's Kidney Pills I have been free from all that trouble and have felt a great deal better in every way. I am not afraid of my back hurting. I use a few of Doan's once in awhile and they keep my kidneys in fine shape."

Under present conditions our receipts of domestic coal are limited and prices are constantly changing.

We will be glad to enter orders; deliver the coal as promptly as we can secure it, and bill it to our customers on the basis of cost to us plus our usual gross margin, and this will have to be our policy at this time as everything indicates great uncertainty in the coal trade.

Our customers can be assured that we will do everything possible to keep the price as low as we are able to, consistent with quality, weight and service, and we shall be glad to have you entrust the business to us on this basis.

ESTABLISH OWN COURTS

Laborers Disclaim Responsibility For Recent Outbreaks and Take Law Into Their Hands

London, May 29.—Disclaiming responsibility for the period of lawlessness in Ireland, which culminated in the destruction of 400 vacant military barracks, followers of the "Irish republic" have taken the law into their own hands and apparently are going far toward successfully repressing further outbreaks.

They have established a new system of "volunteer citizens' courts," conducted after the fashion of courts-martial, for the purpose of trying malefactors and those suspected of burglary, theft and wanton destruction. Though their efforts a mass of stolen property already has been returned to its owners.

The destruction of barracks came when the authorities closed down the most isolated military headquarters, thus leaving some districts absolutely unprotected. And the subsequent absence of police brought about an epidemic of looting and burglarizing of private and public buildings.

The republicans at once manifested their desire not to be linked with the crime wave and decided to establish a system of volunteer police in those unprotected districts, to be backed up by an efficient citizens' court, which might deal effectively with law-breakers.

The result has been that evil-doers are thoroughly alarmed. Many arrests have been made during the last two weeks and trials have satisfactorily imposed punishment that may act as a deterrent.

The republican courts have already discovered and restored considerable stolen property, including some that has been missing for more than a year. The system resembles a real court-martial. The accused are permitted counsel and when they are unable to provide their own attorneys the court assigns barristers to the case.

And so successfully are the tribunals dealing out justice that the ordinary Sinn Fein petty courts are practically idle.

POLICEMAN WANTED FEE

Commonwealth Attorney Gets His, But Officer is Left in Cold

What consolation is it to a policeman to know that the commonwealth attorney has received his fee of $10 in an automobile case if his own informant's fee of $5 has not been assessed? Policeman T. J. Maxey, who brought action in police court of Richmond yesterday against B. A. Blenner, local auto dealer, on three charges of not complying with the state laws in having improper tags on autos which he was bringing through the state, was told that Mr. Blenner, who pleaded guilty to the charges, had paid the usual costs, including the commonwealth attorney fees.

"But where is my $10 fee?" queried the officer. The police court treasurer looked askance. Mr. Blenner had been fined $10 and costs in each of three cases against him. But when he went to pay up he found a bill against him of more than $70. "What for?" he asked. The police court treasurer informed him that this included $30 commonwealth attorney fees—ten dollars in each case. Mr. Wise happened to be standing nearby. "You are not going to charge me $10 in each case, are you Mr. Wise, when I find so little trouble with the case?" asked Mr. Blenner of the commonwealth attorney, with something of a sneer in his voice.

"You will have to pay what the law allows, see the court clerk about it," said the commonwealth attorney. Mr. Blenner paid, but queried, "Who made such a law as that?" Later Policeman Maxey phoned Mr. Blenner and asked that he come again to court. It was painful news which the officer had to break to him about the oversight of the $15 for informant's fee, which the police court treasurer had failed to figure in the first assessment of Mr. Blenner. Mr. Maxey expressed the opinion that if the commonwealth attorney collected $30 for his fee he felt that he was at least entitled to a fee allowed by law, which was 50 per cent of what Mr. Wise received.

LABOR DEBATE NEAR RIOT

Gompers and Allen Booped And Heckled Before Vast Throng

New York, May 29.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, Governor Henry J. Allen of Kansas and an audience of more than 4,000 persons, which filled Carnegie Hall to capacity, last night debated the operation of the Kansas Industrial Relations Court. There were as many turned away as gained admittance to the hall.

On several occasions, the audience took matters entirely out of the hands of the principals in the debate, hurling question after question from faction to faction and at the speakers, who joined in pleading with the crowd against interruption.

President Gompers, as the first speaker, centered his arguments against efforts to prohibit strikes by law. When he rose he was cheered for several minutes.

"You can make the laws what you will," he declared, "but if you outlaw strikes your laws will be a failure and you will merely make criminals of honest and law-abiding workers."

"To work or not to work is the human right, and not the right of governments, of legislatures or of courts," he said. "That is what we contend and will contend forever."

Gov. Allen precipitated a near riot with the statement, a few minutes later, that the law had "only taken away from Gompers his divine right to order a man to quit work." Cheers and cheers mingled in one great roar. The demonstration lasted several minutes, and had to be quelled by the chairman.

Gov. Allen asked President Gompers how he would protect the interests of the public in a strike which threatened to cut off commodities and endanger the health of the people at large.

Gompers immediately rose. "An innocent child can ask questions his father, or another, will not be prepared to answer," he said. The audience was not satisfied. Cries of "answer! answer!" came from all sides and he said he would attempt to do so "before I die."

KEPT HER AWAKE

The Terrible Pains in Back and Sides Cardui Gave Relief

Marksville, La.—Mrs. Alice Johnson of this place writes: "For one year I suffered with an awful misery in my back and sides. My left side was hurting me all the time. The misery was something awful. I could not do anything, not even sleep at night. It kept me awake most of the night. I took different medicines, but nothing did me any good or relieved me until I took Cardui."

I was not able to do any of my work for one year and I got worse all the time, was confined to my bed off and on. I got so bad with my back that when I stooped down I was not able to straighten up again. I decided I would try Cardui. By time I had taken the entire bottle I was feeling pretty good and could straighten up and my pains were nearly all gone.

I shall always praise Cardui. I continued taking it until I was strong and well. If you suffer from pains due to female complaints, Cardui may women who once suffered in this way now praise Cardui for their present good health. Give it a trial.

BOYS SHUT DOWN SHOP

Young Glassworkers Quit and Plant Closes for Summer

Medford, N. J., May 29.—Because boys of the Medford Glass Works went on a strike when refused an increase of fifty cents a day, owners have closed down the plant until next fall, throwing more than 100 employees out of work.

The "snapping up" boys are paid $2.50 a day and the trouble arose when one of the boys claimed he was getting $3.00 for the same work. This was discovered by the young strikers in face of the company's threat to close down the plant, refused to return. The firm was ordered drawn and all departments closed. The plant usually closes in midsummer but the firm, because of the rush business had planned to operate through all hot weather.

The strike is not without benefit to farmers and others in the community as many of the glass workers are seeking employment on farms, where labor has been a problem.

PRINT ON BROWN PAPER

Buffalo, N. Y., May 29.—The Lackawanna Journal appeared yesterday afternoon printed on brown wrapping paper with this heading across the front page: "This paper cost us 14 1/2 cents a pound, 4 1/2 cents more than the next they used to wrap in it."
